

Contact: Jeff Bennett

Shawn Morgan

Van Etten, Bonnie

Vice President, Group Chief Accounting Officer - Fiat Chrysler Automobiles N.V.

Bonnie Van Etten is the Group Chief Accounting Officer for Fiat Chrysler Automobiles N.V. and is responsible for overseeing the Company's accounting, reporting and internal controls. She was named to the position in March 2017 and is based in Auburn Hills, Mich.

Prior to her current role, she was the Vice President-Chief Accounting Officer for NAFTA and FCA US LLC.

Van Etten has handled a number of increasing financial responsibilities within the Company including serving as Head of Global Technical Accounting and Accounting Research for Fiat Chrysler Automobiles N.V. and FCA US.

She joined the Company in December 2010 from American Express, where she last served as Vice President, Regulatory Reporting. She received her bachelor's in finance from Anderson University, Indiana (USA).

Her work background includes:

- 2017 – current, Vice President, Group Chief Accounting Officer – Fiat Chrysler Automobiles N.V.
- 2015 – Vice President, FCA – NAFTA, FCA US Chief Accounting Officer
- 2013 – Head of Global Technical Accounting and Accounting Research, Fiat Chrysler Automobiles N.V. and FCA US LLC
- 2010 – Director, Technical Accounting – FCA US LLC
- 2009 – Vice President, Regulatory Reporting, American Express Company
- 2006 – Vice President, Controller – Technical Accounting Group, American Express International, Inc.
- 2001 – Director – Capital Markets Group (Europe), PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP
- 1997 – U.S. Audit practice, PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP

20170508

-###-

Additional information and news from Stellantis are available at: <https://media.stellantisnorthamerica.com>