Contact: Ariel Gavilan

Michele Callender

Chrysler Group Set to Premiere Two Design Concepts at the 2012 Beijing International Automotive Exhibition

April 5, 2012, Auburn Hills, Mich. - Chrysler brand announces its return to the China market at the 2012 Beijing International Automotive Exhibition on April 23, 2012. To commemorate this important occasion, Chrysler will unveil a Chrysler 300C design concept created specifically with Chinese elements in mind.

Also tailored for the China market, a Jeep® Wrangler design concept – inspired by the Year of the Dragon – will showcase the opportunity for special editions that might be available for Chinese customers in the near future.

-###-

Additional information and news from Stellantis are available at: https://media.stellantisnorthamerica.com