March 23, 2016, Auburn Hills, Mich. - Following an enthusiastic reception from its Hellcat and SRT owners, Dodge is expanding the popular Go Mango heritage exterior paint color to its entire Charger and Challenger lineups.

"We've seen a tremendous response from our customers after we announced the return of Go Mango at the 11th annual Spring Festival in California. In fact, nearly half of all SRT and Hellcat orders are for Go Mango," said Tim Kuniskis, Head of Passenger Car Brands – Dodge, SRT, Chrysler and FIAT, FCA – North America. "To meet consumer demand, we plan to expand this modernized heritage color to the entire Charger and Challenger lineup later this spring."

Go Mango was first introduced by Dodge on the iconic 1970 Challenger. Following a limited production run in 2006 on specific Charger R/T Daytona models, and more recently featured on the 2016 Dodge Dart, the next generation of the legendary and limited-edition exterior hue combines orange and red tones into a high-impact color that showcases the legendary Dodge performance attitude.
